BANGOR - St. George Greek Orthodox Church presents the 3rd Annual Big Fat Greek Dance on November 6 at Wellman Commons in Bangor from 7:00 – 11:00 pm. Plenty of Greek food dishes, wine & beer will be enjoyed as well as dancing to authentic Greek music, provided by Jim Karvelas of Kennebunk, a popular DJ for Greek dances across the state. American rock 'n roll classics will be played intermittently between Greek tunes for those who enjoy a variety of dance music. The evening also features door prizes from local merchants and the opportunity to purchase "OPA! Balloons" for additional cash prizes.

Children are also welcome to attend the Greek Dance. On-site supervision will be offered by students from Husson University as children enjoy a pizza party in an adjacent room to the dance.

For those who would like to practice and/or learn Greek dancing prior to the event, free Greek dance lessons will be provided, courtesy of Lambros Karris. The lessons will be held in the Fellowship Hall at St. George Church, 90 Sanford Street, Bangor, on the five Wednesday evenings prior to November 6th, from 7:00 – 8:30 pm on October 6, 13, 20, 27 and November 3.

Special discounted hotel rates are being offered for November 5 & 6 for those outside the Bangor area who wish to attend and spend the weekend. Please contact St. George Church to receive details.

Tickets are $25 in advance and $30 at the door, available in Bangor at Angelo's Pizzeria on Hammond Street and Captain Nick's on Union Street. Admission for Youth 17 and under is $10.00 (accompanied by an adult). All proceeds benefit the mission of St. George Greek Orthodox Church in its service to the community.
